

Return Policy

We do not accept returns. Its not fair to get your vitamins back and resell it to another customer because we do not know what you did with the vitamins when you received it.

We respect our customers and we have to make sure that each customer receive brand new and sealed bottles. Make sure 100% that you really need the product before you buy it.

you always can buy one brand and try it before you buy a whole kit.

Our products is a 100% pure and clean. we never had issues with any customers. if you have any questions before you buy please contact us and we will answer all your questions.